

Resolution 08-014

A Resolution for Clay County, Georgia to amend Guidelines for Financial Plan of Operations

WHEREAS, the Clay County Board of Commissioners desires to create consistent financial practices;

WHEREAS, Clay County recognizes the need for standard guidelines for financial practices it administers;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, the Clay County Board of Commissioners does hereby amend Resolution 05-011 Guidelines for Financial Plan of Operation as first adopted on December 6, 2005:

FINANCIAL PLAN OF OPERATIONS AND GENERAL GUIDELINES

A. To amend Chapter X. Surplus Property by deleting in its entirety:

Annually or as needed, Clay County Board of Commissioners shall hold a Surplus Property sale. Items will be advertised in the local organ as well as a complete listing can be seen at the Commission office. Items will be available for public viewing at a designated time and place. Items will be offered by sealed bids. Each bidder must register upon entering the bidding area. They will then bid on each desired item. Items may be listed with a minimum bid. At the designated end time, bidding will cease and all bids will be opened by the County Administrator and two additionally appointed officials. High bidder will be awarded the bid assuming the minimum bid requirement was met. Successful bidders will be notified the next business day. All property must be paid for before items are picked up. A time and place for pickup will be announced. Items not paid for and/or not picked up will be held over for the next surplus sale. County employees, County Commissioners or Constitutional officers of Clay County may not bid on surplus inventory.

B. By inserting therein the following:

Annually or as needed, Clay County Board of Commissioners shall hold a Surplus Property sale. Items will be advertised on the web by GovDeals.com. The rules and regulations stated on the GovDeals website will prevail. Items will be available for public viewing at a designated time and place. High bidder will be awarded the bid assuming the minimum bid requirement was met. Successful bidders will be notified the next business day. All property must be paid for before items are picked up. A time and place for pickup will be scheduled with the county office. Items not paid for and/or not picked up will be held over for the next surplus sale. County employees, County Commissioners or Constitutional officers of Clay County may not bid on surplus inventory.

C. Written notice will be published in the legal organ two weeks prior to the start date of the auction advertising the surplus sale items and location of bid site.

D. All ordinances and resolutions and parts of ordinances and resolutions in conflict hereof being hereby expressly repealed and amended hereby.

E. That this Resolution shall become effective immediately upon its passage.

PASSED AND ADOPTED after first and only reading this 19th day of February, 2009.
